record review

4.2 (1,155 reviews) The number one attraction out of 7 things to do in Na Jomtien.

Type : Attraction, Religious

How far from property : 20 mins by drive.

Khao Chi Chan is a famous place as it features a giant sculptural image of Lord Buddha erected on the giant cliff. It was built 1995 as initiative from then Supreme Patriarch who felt it's such a waste to let these marble mountains were destroyed so he ordered to create the giant Buddha image on the cliff that was cut half already. It was also built to honor His Majesty King Bhumibol on the occasion of his Golden Jubilee

Bicycle Tracking Lane & Scenery Route

Type : Activity

How far from property : 20 mins by drive.

Pattaya to Silverlake Vineyard
Silverlake is situated around 25km to the south-east of Pattaya and best known for the vineyard and Buddha Mountain. The most common route is along Sukhumvit Road to Na Jomtien Soi 13. From here you will get to take in some fantastic landscapes. The climbs involved are relatively short and shouldn't pose too much of a problem for cyclists of a medium standard and above.

Chak Ngaew Ancient Chinese Village in Pattaya

Type : Cultural & Heritage
How far from property : 15 mins by drive

Chakngeaw Chinese Village, Thailand (ชุมชนจีนบ้านชากแง้ว : Chakngeaw Chinese Village - 田纽 | Pattaya ) for featuring in the Green Destinations 2025 Top 100 Story List. "Roots that Rise: Chakngeaw Chinese's Market Comeback"
Ban Chakngeaw, a small village in Chon Buri Province, experienced economic and cultural decline after a highway diverted traffic away in 1972. In response, local residents formed a Community-Based Tourism (CBT) group in 2012 to revive their Teochew-Chinese heritage through festivals, traditional markets, and storytelling. With minimal funding but strong community ownership, the village successfully transformed into a cultural tourism destination, attracting thousands of visitors and generating over 49 million baht annually. This grassroots revival has brought pride, jobs, and sustainability back to a once-forgotten village.

Takiantia Community Viilage

Type : Cultural and CSR Project
How far from property : 30 mins by drive.

Takiantia is a village surrounded by Takian Trees. Instead, the village is widely famous for its coconuts. Here, coconuts are ubiquitous. The locals can make a lot of money from coconuts. To Takiantia villagers, a coconut tree is not just a tree. It is an origin of local wisdom. Takiantia people are great at creating different local products from coconuts.

Wat Yanasangwararam, a beautiful temple in Chonburi.

Pay respects to the Buddha and admire its beauty.

History of Wat Yanasangwararam was built in 1976, during the 200th anniversary of the Chakri Dynasty. The construction was presided over by Somdej Phra Yanasangwar, the Supreme Patriarch (Charoen Suwatthano), who named the temple after his former ecclesiastical title (Somdej Phra Yanasangwar, Supreme Patriarch): "Wat Yanasangwararam".

Morning Merit at Baan Am pur and our resort

Type : Cultural

How far from property : 15 mins by drive.
Starting the day with a peaceful morning
alms giving to Phra Ajarn Suchart at Ban
Amphur. Feeling truly blessed.

The Meaning of Alms-Giving: Offering food and necessities to monks in the early morning is a fundamental act of generosity, known in Buddhism as dana. It is a way for laypeople to support the monks' simple lifestyle, as they rely entirely on the community for their daily sustenance while they focus on their spiritual practice.

The Spiritual Belief: Participating in this ritual is considered an act of merit-making, which is believed to purify the mind, reduce attachment, and cultivate a sense of inner peace. People perform this act with the intention of sharing those blessings with their loved ones and accumulating good karma for their future.
